Problem – Solution Fit Template

Date	20 FEBRUARY 2026
Team ID	LTVIP2026TMIDS37333
Project Name	Measuring the Pulse of Prosperity: An Index of Economic Freedom Analysis

Problem – Solution Fit Template:

1. Customer-State Fit

- Customer Segment: Economic policymakers and international investors.
- Customer Limitations:
  - Limited time and clarity with existing report formats.
  - No unified interactive tool; reliant on static PDFs or spreadsheets.
  - Sometimes lacks advanced visualization tools or support staff.
- Existing Solutions Tried:
  - Traditional Excel files and Heritage/World Bank PDFs.
  - Manual data extraction using scripts or BI tools.
- Pros/Cons:
  - Excel offers flexibility, but is error-prone.
  - PDFs are authoritative, yet static and difficult to navigate.

2. Problem-Behavior Fit

- Problems to Solve:
  - Hard to compare country rankings quickly.
  - Difficult to track pillar-based trends or improvements over time.
- Frequency:
  - Monthly/quarterly policy reviews; annual investment decisions.
- Root Cause:
  - Static data reporting and lack of interactive dashboards.
- Customer Behavior:
  - Searching PDFs line by line; manually cross-referencing.
  - Delaying decisions due to low clarity or accessibility.

3. Communication-Channel Fit

- Trigger to Act: Release of the new Index data (annually or semi-annually).
- Emotions Experienced:
  - Frustration with manual workflows.
  - Anxiety over missing trends.
  - Relief and confidence after seeing the interactive dashboards.
- Channels Observed:
  - Policymakers via government intranet or conferences.
  - Investors via financial websites, LinkedIn, and email newsletters.

4. Problem-Solution Fit

- Solution Aligned to Context:
  - Interactive online dashboards embedded in a professional web app.
  - Data filters for countries, pillars, and time ranges.
  - Responsive design usable on desktop and mobile.
  - Hosted on GitHub Pages for easy sharing; no password needed.
  - Accompanied by a professional Word/PDF report for offline use.
  - Optional filters and tooltips tailored for varied user expertise.

Summary of Fit

This solution directly addresses policymakers' and investors' frustrations by delivering a visually compelling, interactive, and easily accessible tool. It fits within their workflow (desktop/mobile, embedded web integrations) and behavior (annual index use). Combined with downloadable documentation, it effectively solves their problems in a familiar, efficient, and trustable format
